Presenters:

Paul J. Hershberger, Ph.D.

Kate Graber

Paul Hershberger, Ph.D., is a professor of Clinical Health Psychology at Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine. He is an expert in the field of Positive Psychology, focusing on personal growth, quality relationships, and developing a positive quality of life.

Kate Graber is the co-developer of the Capability Teaching and Neutralize & Redirect method. She began her career as a Home Supervisor providing intervention for individuals who have dual diagnosis and high aggression. Her “no restraint” message challenges systems and service providers to reshape their thinking and feelings about the important jobs they perform.
